WORKSHOP: TWO WORLDS COMING TOGETHER: THE DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND TRANSACTIONAL ASPECTS IN THE DEBT RESTRUCTURING PROCESS

With more than 1,700 attorneys in 27 offices across Europe, the Middle East, the US and Asia, Reed Smith is one of the world's top law firms. Having advised on India-related business for 26 years, our India Group comprises a dedicated team of cross-jurisdictional lawyers who have extensive experience and knowledge of advising Indian companies, industrial groups, banks and financial institutions on a wider range of matters. We are, for example, able to offer English, US, Singapore, Hong Kong, French and German law advice on multi-jurisdictional India-related deals.

Our India Group is co-chaired by partners Gautam Bhattacharyya and Ranajoy Basu.

Our core strengths are international commercial arbitration and litigation, bank lending, capital markets, restructuring and corporate transactions. Our lawyers have specialist knowledge of the Indian market and we understand how Indian clients and businesses operate, how they wish to be advised, and all of the cultural, historical and social aspects of India as a country and as a commercial marketplace.

In a market as dynamic as modern India, we also work in collaboration with the finest local law firms to deliver top quality services, and to add value to our clients and their businesses.
