ZICO Law in Indonesia

ZICO Law in Indonesia is represented by its member firm Roosdiono & Partners (R&P). R&P is a full-service corporate law firm founded in 1999 by senior consultant Anangga Wardhana Roosdiono, a renowned and respected lawyer with more than 50 years experience.

Based in Jakarta, we are acclaimed for our ability to combine local knowledge with regional insights to develop effective legal solutions. We continue to uphold our commitment to help clients improve business performance and achieve a competitive edge, whether they operate in Indonesia or in the region.

As a member firm of ZICO Law, we provide our clients with direct access to a powerhouse of more than 300 lawyers in 10 out of the 10 ASEAN member countries. We are unique in providing cross-border legal-related services within the same regional network. ZICO Law is part of ZICO, an integrated network of multidisciplinary firms ensuring organisations and individuals succeed in ASEAN.

Why us ?

Our teams assist leading international and Indonesian corporate clients and the government in diverse fields of industry and commerce. We are committed to helping clients improve business performance and achieve a competitive advantage through effective legal strategy. In addition, we have established dedicated Japan, China and Korea desks to accommodate our cross-border clients who have interest in Indonesia and these key jurisdictions.

Some of our major engagement highlights:

- Advised onshore and offshore lenders on the first ever Islamic debt syndication in Indonesia
- Advised local and international financial institutions on straight, revolving, syndication and multi-facility loans
- Advised on conversion of a well-known conventional bank's licence to a fully-licensed Shariah financial institution, and subsequently on the restructuring of all of the financial institution's financing documents to Shariah-compliant documentation
- Advised on massive toll road investment and construction in various locations in Indonesia
- Represented a livestock breeding company in an anti-competition legal proceeding initiated after an investigation by the Indonesian Business Competition Supervisory Committee (KPPU)
- Represented a major FMCG company in complex tort litigation involving their direct selling business
- Advised the Government of Indonesia on the issuance of Sukuk Negara Ritel Seri SR-010
- Advised clients on many infrastructure projects, including study on ERP and review of construction contracts for MRT development
- Represented the Indonesian Arbitration Board (BANI) on a trademark cancellation and infringement case
