Malaysia offering

Whether you are a major Malaysian company or an international corporation, we can advise you on outbound and inbound cross-border transactions, projects, disputes and finance matters (including Islamic finance).

Our Kuala Lumpur office opened in 2017, following over two decades of advising Malaysian clients on their international matters and international clients on their Malaysian matters. Through our reinforced offering in Southeast Asia, local and international clients can benefit from our on-the-ground expertise and direct access to our expanded global network.

Practice areas

Our Kuala Lumpur office can advise you on the following matters:

- Dispute resolution: International arbitration, litigation, mediation, other forms of ADR and investigations
- Transactions: Cross-border mergers and acquisitions, major project developments, joint ventures, strategic alliances, construction, competition and regulatory matters and real estate investments
- Finance: Finance matters, both conventional and Islamic, such as bonds, syndicated loans, acquisition and leveraged finance, debt restructurings and project finance

In addition, we are your window to our international network and our full service offerings around the globe.

Our team

A team of experienced local and international lawyers comprise our Kuala Lumpur team, each with extensive experience in advising on legal matters for Malaysian and international clients on their matters in Malaysia, across Southeast Asia and beyond. In addition to our team's unique expertise, clients will have access to the broader Herbert Smith Freehills network.
