

Safeguarding Your Organisation from Ethics & Compliance Risk

NAVEX Global provider of:

Whistleblower Hotlines

Trusted by thousands of organisations around the world, our hotlines help employees, customers and other stakeholders easily report potential E&C issues. Our hotlines also give you crucial data to see trends and take action before minor issues become major.

Incident Management Systems

Capture and investigate E&C reports from across your organisation – and from all reporting channels – in a centralised database. Our EthicsPoint Incident Management solution creates a systematic approach to documenting case assignments and streamlining workflows.

Compliance Training

Strengthen your organisational culture, meet legal requirements and inspire ethical behaviour by deploying our award-winning online E&C training. Our robust library is customisable and translated into many languages.

Policy Management Software

Centralise, simplify and strengthen your policy management life cycle with PolicyTech®. Automating this foundational process of your E&C programme reduces legal risk while increasing productivity, accessibility and accuracy of your policies.

Third-Party Risk Management & Due Diligence Software

Protect your organisation from third-party risk with continuous screening and due diligence. RiskRate® is an affordable, automated platform that performs around the clock third-party risk monitoring – the standard for effective due diligence.

Data & Community

Enhance your programme with data and analysis from our industry leading benchmark reports. And connect with thousands of like-minded compliance professionals in the first member-driven compliance community.

More Manageable. More Measurable. More Meaningful.

Manage complex E&C tasks more efficiently. Measure programme results more accurately. Connect the dots across your programme to get meaningful insights to continuously improve. NAVEX Global's integrated suite of proven E&C tools, content, services and data equips organisations to identify and contain compliance risks. Whether you need one solution or our full suite, we're ready to help protect your people, reputation and bottom line.
