KEY POINTS TO NOTE

1. Confidentiality: We respect the confidentiality of the information shared with us. However, please note that all information provided to us may be published by InHouse Community Limited unless explicitly marked as confidential. To ensure the protection of sensitive information, we kindly request that any confidential details, including client names, deal or case values, or any other pertinent information, be clearly identified as CONFIDENTIAL. This should be done by highlighting the information in bold red. Your diligence in marking confidential matters will help us uphold the integrity and privacy of the information shared with us.
2. It is crucial to submit your entries by the 25th of September 2025. The timetable for the judging process will be strictly followed to ensure a fair and thorough evaluation process. Your cooperation in adhering to these deadlines is greatly appreciated.
3. Submission of Documents: Please ensure that the submission is sent to us in the same PDF. Please name the document file with your company name, or the name of the nominated person in case of individual submissions.
4. Why Submit? Submitting for awards boosts visibility, credibility, and morale. Recognition validates expertise, attracting collaboration and talent. Participation fosters excellence and innovation. Winning enhances the legal team's reputation and its strategic importance within the organisation – and helps in internal buy-in (legal tech, external legal services and more).
